Objectives

Schools in Kwun Tong have nurtured numerous generations of students. Among them, there are all-rounded achievers who have holistic developments in various aspects, together with excellent academic results, conduct and active participation in extra-curricular activities and social services.

The effort and hard work paid by these outstanding students are worth appreciated. We hope that the outstanding students can act as the role models and further encourage the younger generations. Afterwards, they will better equip themselves and contribute to society in the future.
